

Student Profile

	Name of Student: Santina Yobu Francis DOB Supported School: Liwolo Primary School Current School: Liwolo Secondary School Class: Senior 1
Family Background: Father: Payuwa Francis is a peasant farmer who struggles with keeping Santina in school. Mother: Mary Modong, helps her husband in the gardens and collects firewood to sell for their family needs. She has no other job to do. Santina Yobu is 17. She helps her parents in the gardens during holidays and over weekends. She cannot do any other jobs that could raise her enough money for scholastic materials. “Looking at the many people suffering from many deaseas, I want to do medicine so that I can help many during my time”. Santina said. I will also be able to help my family. On hearing that the Diocese of Bethlehem was going to support her in her secondary school, Santina jumped up with Joy. “Now I will be able to realize my dream – of becoming a Doctor” she said. “I was beginning to loose hope, but now my hopes are restored, She went on”. Thank you Diocese of Bethlehem. May this friendship continue with the Diocese of Kajo Keji”.	