Walkabouts

Walkabouts are gatherings where diocesan members have a unique opportunity to interact with our bishop candidates. During each Walkabout, our candidates will give general introductory remarks in a large group setting. Afterwards, small group, question-and-answer sessions will be held with individual bishop candidates. Diocesan members are invited to attend any of the four evening Walkabout sessions listed below to hear the bishop candidates' positions on important issues. Please submit your questions for the bishop candidates in advance to bishoptransitiondiobeth@gmail.com. Please include your question and the walkabout session you plan to attend.

You can read more about the individual bishop candidates in upcoming weeks through our weekly newsletters and our website:
