Bishop's Address:

"From village to city, valley to mountain top, God has been at work with us in the Diocese of Bethlehem and has begun leading us along exciting new pathways. I have seen a momentum building ...

Today we gather for the 147th Convention of the Diocese of Bethlehem!

We gather to discover where our journey with God is taking us next. "

The Prophet Jeremiah spoke a bit about this "Building momentum on our journey with God."

Jeremiah 29:11- For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

Canon Anne Kitch and The Rev. Megan Dembi (missioner for communications) and I began to discern a scriptural passage for this year's convention many months back and Jeremiah 29:11 spoke to us.

Now, Jump forward to August 21, my first Diocesan Council meeting. That night I was prepared to talk about my own sense of vision or as I refer to it as a Trellis or Frameworks that I sensed was unfolding...

Before I had a chance to do that - Cynthia Nortey, a lay representative from Christ Church, East Stroudsburg (Cynthia was my Shepherd during the Search process, so I have come to rely on Cynthia's spiritual gifts)

Now Cynthia offered a moving devotion that night highlighting our need to trust God's plan for our lives and our Diocese - and then she closed with a Scripture passage - of course she chose Jeremiah 29:11! I took notice! This was no coincidence...

Let me read it again (Jeremiah 29:11) – "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

We remember a bit about Jeremiah's vision of restoration for a people in exile

Chapter 29:12-13 continues - "when you call upon me and come and pray to me, I will hear you. When you search for me, you will find me; if you seek me with all your heart ..."

As I look out at all of you - having listened to some of your stories... Courageous stories of resilience and perseverance...

There have been Stories of PERSONAL STRUGGLE, ECONOMIC HARDSHIP, NATURAL DISASTERS, even downright HEARTLESSNESS...

And yet, you are beacons of hope...especially in your local communities.

I have met with exasperated leaders who have given of everything they have to MAINTAIN BUILDINGS, offer needed OUTREACH and coordinate a ROTATING BAND OF TRAVELING CLERGY ... (sometimes it's a Band of 1)

You trust in a God that promises a hope and a future

You search for God in the most vulnerable among you and give of your heart.

FOR OTHERS, you may have experienced a less dramatic, but equally challenging shift in congregational life over the last 5-10 years. Volunteers and committee leaders are harder to find. Youth and families are pulled in myriad directions. The Stewardship of resources feels ever more daunting...

THE HOLDING TOGETHER of the expectations of various constituencies in the congregation is harder than ever. The fragmentation found in our politics and wider society has left many leaders wondering how they can most effectively share God's love in a way that will bring people together in Christ.

_____ Is this resonating with anyone? _____

Now Joshua, another Old Testament hero (who knew hardship and heartlessness) and rose to be a leader through faithful obedience to God, offers us some wisdom and needed encouragement:

Joshua 1:9 (NRSV) I hereby command you: Be strong and courageous; do not be frightened or dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Now, I personally like the nuanced translation of the New Jerusalem Bible Instead of - Be strong and courageous - we hear "Be fearless and undaunted"

ONE THING I HAVE LEARNED IN MY NEARLY 6 MONTHS SINCE YOU ELECTED ME "YOU are STRONG and COURAGEOUS AND you are FEARLESS and UNDAUNTED!

This is why I say MOMENTUM IS BUILDING - Something is stirring... I see it and feel it in you!

Let me go back a bit... Your alluring charge to the 9th Bishop of Bethlehem... join us in "Building Something we cannot see or know!"

I remember the first time I read that over a year ago and saying to myself ... I am called to that...

"I am not sure I am called to be a Bishop, but I am called to that..."

I shared this stirring with my father - Tom Nichols - who some of you met a few weeks ago. And he said to me - I think that's enough to go on...

For the record, Later I told him - I might be called to be the Bishop of Bethlehem

He said - "your mother and I took a deep breath whenever you VISITED OR CALLED us to share another new pathway on your journey ...

WE ALL NEED TO TAKE A DEEP BREATH... THIS IS HARD WORK!

Together we must be Strong and Courageous & Fearless and Undaunted in our pursuit of where God is calling us on this journey ..."

Some have asked for my vision -

even +Mary Glasspool, Suffragan Bishop of NY on the morning of September 15, as I gathered with the Bishops before the Ordination Service. Bishop Mary cut through a lot of shop talk and said... "I want to hear from Kevin. Tell me about what called you to Bethlehem and what is your vision..." So I said something like -

- There are moments in our lives, our congregations, and in our dioceses
- And I sensed a momentum building in the Diocese of Bethlehem
- I shared how I was drawn by the Bishop Search profile and the Search Committee's deep desire to "build something we cannot see or know"
- And How Is aw it in their feeding ministries, in their outreach to all of God's Children (not just the ones in our pews) and especially to the most vulnerable... I talked about making butterflies with immigrant children (not sure what possessed me to tell the Bishops about Butterflies!)
- I said, I do not have a vision per se, but that I envisioned the forging of a framework, a trellis, a process to gather broad insights and identify 3 to 4 priorities that focus our resources and our passion. To discover together where God was calling us for the next 3 to 5 years?
- I talked about the Jesus Movement and spreading God's love. The need for Racial Reconciliation and Evangelism and Creation Care...
- I said - especially at this time - Safe and inclusive communities are needed
- I also said, we must care for our leaders and be present with each other especially in the ditches of life...
- I said DioBeth now has a solid foundation (I thanked Bishop Sean, and spoke of my deep gratitude for the staff & Leadership of the Diocese)
- And I told them how humbled and honored I was to be the 9th Bishop of Bethlehem ...

There was silence -

Bishop Glasspool smiled and nodded (I think in affirmation)

AND THEN I ADDED ·its 10:15 AM, everyone is here, can we JUST get this going! I was ready to get moving that morning...

And I feel the same today...

We have exciting work before us - Let's get moving...

WHAT ARE THE NEXT STEPS:

I believe this holy work of envisioning takes at least three things:

1. A Framework or Trellis (Process)
2. Broad participation (Leadership / Involvement Together)
3. Spiritual Rootedness (Continuing a Pilgrimage)

First, you need a

I. FRAMEWORK (TRELLIS) or Process

This "Spreading God's love, particularly to the most vulnerable, From village to city, valley to Mountain Top."

I am thrilled to introduce to you today, Steve Baker. Steve will be joining us as Consulting Director of Mission Resources.

In this role, Steve will support the work of Diocesan Council in the development of the strategic priorities of the Diocese of Bethlehem, including the allocation of Mission Resources and providing grant support to congregations and leaders.

I came to know Steve about 6 years ago as we served together on the Bishop Search Committee in NH (that called Rob Hirschfeld - the Ordination Preacher).

He has experience in strategic planning and development and has served as chair of the Mission Resource committee of the Diocese of NH. He will complement the wonderful and varied existing capabilities of the diocesan Staff.

This is part time, but Steve will be back for the Council meeting in a few weeks as well as for the Clergy Retreat

Welcome Steve!

II. BROAD PARTICIPATION

God has been at work (with us) in the Diocese of Bethlehem and has begun leading us along exciting new pathways.

The decision that you made to "take a season" (EVEN IF IT WAS A 4 YEAR SEASON) and go on Pilgrimage speaks to the value of taking needed time to walk together in discernment.

The fruits of that time are evident in your collegiality and the hard work you have done in preparation for this moment ...

The voices from all around the boundaries of the diocese (and Patti, Clara and I have checked them out) must all be included -In NH we referred to the North Country Congregations as "above the notch"- we worked hard to eradicate the US and THEM and I hear we may have work to do to lessen the sense of otherness on either side of a tunnel! LET'S COMMIT TO THAT...

We will build on the momentum of Envisioning Together as we discover where our journey with God is taking us next. "

Last, But Surely not least...

III. A SPIRITUAL ROOTEDNESS

The kind of envisioning work that we are called to do will demand a faithfulness that is rooted in prayer and worship.

The most pleasant and wonderful surprise for me coming to this diocese has been the discovery of your worship life...

So powerfully witnessed already in an Ordination, a Funeral for a beloved clergy- person, a Celebration of New Ministry, and in congregations, I have had the privileged of serving among.

You are rooted ... and we must be certain that prayer is at the center of our envisioning.

Now, one cannot talk about Spiritual Rootedness without talking about Care for Creation...

I am so excited to introduce to you in a few moments - The Rev. Steve Blackmer,

Church of the Woods / Kairos Earth - who constantly reminds me that the natural world is a bearer of the sacred and that conserving this "Island Home" must flow out all we do ... It is no wonder that Steve's work in NH is highlighted by the Presiding Bishop as he speaks of the Jesus Movement. All that we are is interconnected...

"From village to city, valley to mountain top, God has been at work with us in the Diocese of Bethlehem and has begun leading us along exciting new pathways." A momentum is building ...

Today we gather to move a bit closer in our discovery of where our journey with God is taking us next."

I close with the prayer that I began with from Teresa of Avila

Let nothing disturb you.

Let nothing make you afraid. All things are passing.

God alone never changes. Patience gains all things.

If you have God

you will want for nothing.

God alone suffices.

Amen

The Rt. Rev. Kevin Nichols

Alteration to the National Constitution Proposed at the 79th General Convention:

Bishop Kevin then called on Rev. Doug Moyer, Secretary of Diocesan Convention, as per Title 1, Canon 1.1.1 (e) of the National Canons, to make known to this Convention of a change to the National Constitution proposed at the 79th General Convention. Rev. Moyer highlighted some of the changes and informed Convention that the entered text of the proposed alterations will be available on the Diocesan website. He then encouraged anyone with questions to contact one of the Deputies to General Convention (who will be elected at next year's Diocesan Convention).

Report on Kajo-Keji:

Bishop Kevin then invited Rev. Charles Barebo to give a report on the Diocese of Kajo-Keji. Charlie began by noting this is the 12th year we have been involved in this work with Kajo-Keji and gave a brief outline of the mission. He then discussed how the resumption of conflict led to the people of Kajo-Keji fleeing from their homeland. The good news is a peace agreement has been signed and the people will be returning. This means some maintenance work will need to be done on the school buildings and new books will need to be purchased for the returning students. Charlie then made a plea to Convention on behalf of the people of Kajo-Keji to help raise some funds to aid this work.

The Rev. Van Bankston officiated at Noonday Prayer.

Resolutions of Courtesy

Be it, and it is hereby, resolved by this 147th Convention of the Diocese of Bethlehem, properly convened on the 12th and 13th days of October in the year of our Lord 2018 at the Homewood Suites by Hilton, Allentown-Bethlehem-Center Valley, Pennsylvania, that our gratitude and appreciation for the ministries of the following is acknowledged and celebrated:

Homewood Suites by Hilton Management and Staff –

Your ministry of hospitality in ensuring the success of this Convention is noted, with our deepest appreciation and thanks. We cannot begin to enumerate the myriad of details with which you have been tasked, but please know that your labors have enabled this Convention to be the success that we all envisioned.

J&J Luxury Transportation Company - For transporting clergy and delegates between Homewood Suites and The Cathedral Church of the Nativity. Making your services available to us was indeed a blessing! We got to sit, relax, and enjoy the trip, while you did the driving.

The Bishop Search and Transition Committees - So, you say you need a new Bishop. Well, that should be fairly easy!

You put an ad in a few publications... ask around to see if there's anyone interested... establish a date by which applications and CV's must be received... review the few CV's you receive... make a short list of those candidates to be considered... hold an election to allow the people to do the final selection... escort the newly-elected to their office... introduce them to their staff... and life goes on! A process like that could take... oh, I don't know... two, maybe three days???

Believe me, when I say that there is none in this room who believes the process of selection and transition was anything other than laborious! Amid already busy lives, you somehow carved out time to do yet another service for your sisters and brothers within this Diocese and for the Church-at-Large. Your main tasks are now complete, but we shall remain in your debt.

As you return to the “normally crazy” level of demand placed upon each of you, know that you go with our prayers, thankfulness, and gratitude... but, keep your loins girded and your sandals on your feet... for you've done a great job and there will be other leaders to be selected...

The Diocese of Bethlehem Standing Committee - The Standing Committee is elected by the diocesan convention. Half of its members are clerical, half lay. It serves as the bishop's council of advice. The Standing Committee is requested to give consent for all bishops elected in the Episcopal Church. It recommends persons for ordination. It gives the bishop advice and consent on the purchase, sale, or encumbrance of any property held by a congregation or the diocese. It gives the bishop advice and consent as to any judicial sentence given to a clergy person or concurs in allowing a clergy person to cease functioning as a member of the clergy. It investigates and reports to the bishop on the charge that a deacon or priest has abandoned the Episcopal Church. It also receives the bishop's resignation.

In a time, which seems so long ago as to be nearly ante-diluvian, when Sneaker Networks were in vogue (think of dashing across the edge of 5.25”, and later 3.5”, floppy disks), there may have been great things done at the side-yard of Diocesan House. Nowadays, however, being able to do anything at Diocesan House, cup one’s hands about one’s mouth, and intone... “nnnnnnnyyyyyyyyyyy” may be perceived as potentially

The Rev. Stephen Blackmer –

Church of the Woods is a place where the earth itself, rather than a building, is the bearer of sacredness; a place where people gather for contemplative practice in communion with each other and nature; a place where the church exists to serve a mission rather than the other way around; a place where people come together to learn, explore, and take action to transform themselves and renew the earth.

\(https://kairosearth.org/church-of-the-woods/\)

It is with grateful hearts that we extend our thanks to Fr. Blackmer. Thank you, Father, for having shared with us glimpses of the wending pathway upon which you have, to date, followed our God. Your faithfulness in following his lead is indeed encouraging, and we offer our prayers of support and encouragement as you continue in the ministry to which he has called you.

Now that fall is here (at least according to the calendar), we well-practiced pilgrims may just want to make a pilgrimage to Canterbury (Merrimack, not Kent County) and bask in the beauty of God's creation with you!

Thanks again for sharing yourself with us.

The Rt. Rev. Kevin Nichols - Bishop Kevin, we have long awaited the day when we might come to know our next Diocesan Bishop. Having absolutely no idea just who it was God would bring to our doorstep, we nonetheless prayed continually for you even before he revealed you to us. Welcome to you, Bp. Kevin!

There are significant differences between travel on the Kancamagus Highway and Wyandotte Street. Nonetheless, the folk found along each are remarkably alike in their hearts and spirits; although we will acknowledge some modicum of variation between the "Dutchy" accents here and the elongated vowels found in New England.

Bp. Kevin, welcome to you!! It is with open arms and hearts that we welcome you into this community as our Bishop!! May you, and we, continually reflect his glorious radiance as we minister to the lost and the least.

Come take your place among us and allow us to get to know you as you represent Christ and his Church; particularly as apostle, chief priest and pastor of this diocese; as you work to guard the faith, unity and discipline of the whole Church; as you proclaim the Word of God; as you act in Christ's name for the reconciliation of the world and the building up of the Church; and as you ordain others to continue, with us, in Christ's ministry. Welcome to you, dear Bishop Kevin!!

Patti Nichols – I believe that Jesus would have given His life for just one person. Jesus emptied Himself, He humbled Himself and He so yielded Himself to His Father's love that He had no ambition of His own. He was not looking to build an empire, He did not want praise or adulation or to impress people with who or how many followed Him. He stopped over and over again for just one person, for just one life.

(Heidi Baker in Learning to Love: Passion, Compassion, and the Essence of the Gospel.)

The added stresses borne by clergy families are both legion and legendary. If those stresses are apparent in the families of all clergy, we can only imagine how large they must loom for the spouse and family of a Bishop. Patti, please know deep within you the truth that Christ would have willingly climbed upon that cross even if you; or the marriage, or family, which you and Bp. Kevin share; were the only ones who needed his atoning death. You (individually and collectively) are indeed made in his image, and worth even the ultimate sacrifice. Please keep that quotation from Heidi Baker close, so that it can remind you repeatedly of its truth.

Patti, we have just welcomed Bp. Kevin, and we now turn our open arms and our hearts to you. Come and sojourn among us as our Sister-in-Christ and fellow minister. Know that you have our love, support, and continued prayer. If the stresses ever seem overwhelming, know that there is always space at the table and the coffee (or tea) is always kept hot! (And, from time to time, there's freshly baked shoofly pie as well as schnitz un gnepp.)

And now, with the most abject apologies to Emeril (who at least has the common sense to have a recipe for schnitz un gnepp) we offer you ... BAM!!!

Yield – 6 to 8 servings

Ingredients

|   |  |
|---|--|
| 3 pounds cooked, good quality, smoked ham | 2 teaspoons baking powder              |
| 1 teaspoon salt                           | ½ teaspoon salt                        |
| 4 cups dried tart apples                  | 1 large egg, beaten                    |
| 3 tablespoons brown sugar                 | 3 tablespoons melted, unsalted, butter |
| 1 large onion finely chopped              | About ½ cup milk                       |
| 2 cups flour                              |  |

Directions

Place ham and salt in a large pot and cover with water. Bring to boil. Reduce the heat and simmer until the ham is tender, about 2 hours.

Place the apples in a large bowl, cover with water, and soak for 2 to 3 hours. When ham is tender, add the apples and their soaking liquid to the pot. Add the brown sugar and onions, bring to a boil. Reduce the heat and simmer, covered, for 1 ½ hours.

Into a large bowl, sift together the flour, baking powder, salt and pepper. Add the egg and melted butter, and enough milk to make a moist, fairly stiff, batter.

Uncover the ham and apples and bring the cooking liquid to a boil. Drop the batter by tablespoonfuls into the boiling liquid. Cover and tightly and simmer for 12 to 15 minutes. Season to taste with salt and freshly ground pepper.

To serve, transfer ham to a large platter and let sit for 5 minutes. Carve thinly and spoon the gnepp (buttons) around the meat. (<http://emerils.com/12577/ham-and-apple-dumplings-schnitz-und-knepp>)

These Resolutions were adopted on this 13th day of October 2018 by the 147th Convention of the Diocese of Bethlehem. The Secretary of this Convention is directed to deliver signed copies of these resolutions to each of those celebrated this day.
